

Saint-Guilhem-le-Désert

Saint-Guilhem-le-Désert has been counted among the Plus Beaux Villages (most beautiful villages) of France since 1999. It is home to numerous artists, many of whom may be found in their studios around the square. Take time to explore the town's main square or visit the nearby Pont du Diable for an amazing day a bit off the beaten path.

Pont du Diable

4 km from the city center, this is a great place to swim or to visit just bask in the sun.

Saint-Guilhem-le-Désert Abbey

History buffs will enjoy visiting this abbey, founded in 804 by and named after William of Gellone, commonly known as Guilhem (the namesake of the city as well).

Main Village Square

With several shops and cafes, and a beautiful 150 year-old tree in the middle of it all, this is the perfect place to relax for the afternoon.

Isaluc

3 rue Chapelle des Penitents

Affordable: Check. Local French cuisine: Check. Vegetarian AND Vegan options; Check and Check. With so many accommodations, Isaluc is sure to deliver a solid lunch.

O'Bistro

3 Grand chemin du Val de Gellone

Looking to really escape the heat? Why not have lunch in a cave at O'Bistro? A bit pricier than the other cafes near the square, the food here is very good and they have vegetarian, vegan, and gluten free options as well. Plus, you're eating in a cave!
