Periodic Review of Chairs and Acting/Interim Chairs: To ensure quality and effectiveness of Chairs/Acting/Interim Chairs and to maintain the confidence of the faculty, each Chair/Acting/Interim Chair must be formally reviewed periodically. A chair must be formally reviewed during the fall semester of the third year of each term. Acting/Interim Chairs must be formally reviewed annually in the fall semester if appointed beyond one academic year. The formal annual review of Acting/Interim Chairs will begin in the fall semester of their second one-year term. The department faculty or an elected department committee, in consultation with the Dean, will develop procedures, criteria, and necessary instruments, such as survey questionnaires and/or feedback forms for evaluating the Chair's/Acting/Interim Chair's performance. A college may elect to use a standard procedure for the review of all its Chairs/Acting/Interim Chairs. The Dean will also provide their individual review and shall report the results of the reviews of performance to the Provost by January 15 of the following calendar year.
